David J. Bradley, Clerk

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

HOUSTON DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	§
V.	§	CRIMINAL NO. H-20-2478 M
WILLIAM COLLINS	§

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Findings of Fact

[ ] A. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e), § 3142(f)(1)].

[ ] (1) The defendant has been convicted of a (federal offense) (state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed) that is

[ ] a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).

[ ] an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.

[ ] an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. ( ) § 801 et seq. ( ) § 951 et seq. ( ) § 955(a).

[ ] a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) (A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.

[ ] (2) The offense described in finding 1 was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.

[ ] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

☐ (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

☒ B. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)]

☒ (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense

☒ for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C.

( ☒ ) § 801 et seq. ( ☐ ) § 951 et seq. ( ☐ ) § 955(a).

☐ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).

☒ (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by the finding under B.(1) that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

☒ C. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)]

☐ (1)

☒ (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will flee.

☐ (3)

☐ (4) There is a serious risk that the defendant will (obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice) (threaten, injure, or intimidate a prospective witness or juror, or attempt to do so).

☒ D. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(c)]

☐ (1) As a condition of release of the defendant, bond was set as follows:

Defendant has stated that he is financially unable to meet this condition of release. The Court has been asked to reconsider. I have concluded that the bond requirement is the only condition of release that could assure the appearance of the defendant. I find that the amount of bond is reasonable and necessary.

☒ (3) I find that there is no condition or combination of conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c) which will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

☐ (4)

☐ (5) I find that there is no condition or combination of conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c) which will reasonably assure the safety of any other person or the community.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence that:

William Collins has been charged by Indictment in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, Eastern Division with felon in possession of a firearm in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1).

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

Evidence presented at the detention hearing shows that the grand jury has made a probable cause determination that William Collins (“Collins”), a convicted felon, possessed a firearm. The case agent testified that on March 22, 2020, during a surveillance of Collins’ residence, agents observed Collins and others in front of the residence. Collins observed the unmarked vehicles and moved a firearm under his armpit. A search warrant was later executed at the residence by local SWAT officers. Collins was at the residence at the time the search warrant was executed. A firearm was seized under the couch where Collins was sitting. Collins’ criminal history includes a Missouri felony conviction for unlawful use of a weapon in 2008, and a Missouri felony conviction for possession of a firearm and possession of a controlled substance in 2014. He was sentenced to probation for both offenses, and his probation was revoked in both cases. This demonstrates an unwillingness or inability to comply with standard bail conditions. He has a misdemeanor conviction for endangering the welfare of a child. He has pending charges in Hillsdale, Missouri. Collins has no ties to the community. His employment is unstable. Collins has a history of substance abuse. Accordingly, having determined, based on clear and convincing evidence, that there are no standard conditions of release to assure the appearance of the Defendant at all future court proceedings in this matter, the Court ORDERS that Defendant William Collins be DETAINED pending further proceedings in this matter.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant are committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendants shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On Order of a Court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendants to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
